PRELUDE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A MOMENT OF SILENCE

INVITATION TO WORSHIP

Arnold Kenseth (adapted)

For the daylight open upon us,
For the air's tall breath that comrades beside us
and is a lover within us,

For the visible ceremonies of the seasons
and the invisible dances of the heart,
For the surgery of fearless minds
and the healing of compassionate hands,
For suffering's wisdom and sorrow's strength,
And for yourself, present and lively
among all sorts and conditions of people,
we give our clamorous thanks.

Let us praise God.
Amen! Amen!

INVOCATION

Arnold Kenseth

Come, Creator; come Lord Jesus Christ; come Holy Spirit ... be in us and browse in us this day. Be in us power to love. Be in us mercy for the broken heart, and healing for the broken bones, and grace for the day's journey. Be in us silence for listening to all the bells and truths of heaven in our midst. Flow in us like our blood.
Cling to us like our flesh. Surround us like the air, and let our prayers come unto you forever. Amen.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Arnold Kenseth (adapted);

Dear God, human sin is contagious. It is in us all. It darkens us against your light. It feavers us before your calm. It knots in us and aches in us as we hear your truth. Surely we can't heal ourselves.
Because your forgiveness brims over all the world and your mercies are the medicines that make all things well, forgive us this day, and let your mercies cleans us . . . soul, bone, and blood; through Jesus Christ.
Amen.

world without end. Amen. Amen.
